

6516209668.txt

I think that these people that are against xm are the same type of people that cracked down on napster. And I think we have the right to choose what we here and when, not relying on some radio station to play what we want to here. Freedom of speach right. We pay for the service so leave them alone they rock.